

December 15, 2017

A media release from

Barley Australia People Movements

Barley Australia would like to announce the retirement of Executive Chairman Andrew Gee on the 31st December 2017. The Board of Barley Australia sincerely thanks Andrew for the invaluable service and stewardship he has given to Barley Australia and the Australian Barley Industry as a whole over the last 7 years. We wish Andrew and his family all the best for the future.

Following on from Andrew's departure, Barley Australia would like to announce that Dr Megan Sheehy has accepted the role of Executive Chairperson, commencing 1st January 2018. Megan has performed the role of Executive Manager for the last 2 years and has an extensive background in brewing and malting.

Ralph Nischwitz has been appointed Executive Manager for Barley Australia. Ralph has over 25 years of malting industry experience, and Barley Australia takes great pleasure in welcoming him to the team. Ralph will commence his role on the 1st of January 2018.

ends